Leaving Chicago. Labor Troubles and Increased Cost of Production the Cause.

CONDITIONS HAVE GROWN INTOLERABLE.

(Chicago Record-Herald Aug. 21.) The announcement of Rand, McNally & Co. that it intended to move a portion of its plant from Chicago was followed by statements yesterday from other firms which are seeking new locations. Unreasonable wage schedules, labor difficulties, high rent, taxes and cartage rates considered extortionate, which have been increased 44.9 per cent in the last year, are given as reasons for the transfer of plants which have grown up in the city and have been enlarged with advancing years.

Besides Rand, McNally & Co. it is announced that the following firms either have removed or intend to remove their plants shortly to smaller towns:

Atlas Furniture Company, 56 Frank street, to Muskegon, Mich. Ross-Sellinger Glove Company, to Sheboygan, Mich.

Burnam Brothers, glove manufacturers, to Muskegon, Mich.

Charles Maurer, glove manufacturers, 685 Ahland avenue, to Monroe, Wis.

Vassar Underwear Company, to Rochelle, Ill.

Poole Brothers, railroad printers, to Holland, Mich.

William Omer & Co., 38 Elston avenue, shoe manufacturers, to Dixon, Ill.

MANY PLANTS TO MOVE.

Four clothing manufacturers and four sheet metal firms are said to be preparing to seek locations in other cities, while other firms, notably the Allis-Chalmers Company, have abandoned the erection of big editions to their plants. A representative of one of the large associations in this city said that at least seventy-five big plants would probably leave the city before the year closed in the hope of securing better labor conditions.

Kentucky Soldiers Fined.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 22.—The finding of the regimental court-martial held here this week on Capt. Maddox of Newcastle, Lieut. S. Blakely of Covington, and Lieut. Jeff Downing of Lexington, resulted in heavy fines in each case and a reprimand for Blakely. Downing was charged with allowing Doug Hays, a Hargis Henchman, to accompany him to Lexington wearing a soldier's uniform and going with Hays to the county jail where they asked permission to see Curtis Jett and Tom White, the assassins confined there. Downing pleaded not guilty, but was fined $15. Capt. Maddox and Lieut. Blakely were charged with having given their men liquor, making them drunk and disorderly, returning from fend service at Jackson. Maddox was fined $10 and Blakely $25 and ordered reprimanded by the commanding officer. If the fines are not paid within thirty days the officers are to be dismissed from the service.

An Oklahoma poet has improved on poor Richard. He says:

"Early to bed and early to rise
Does very well for sick folks and guys.
But it makes a man miss all the fun till he dies,
And joins the stiff that have gone to the skies.
Go to bed when you please,
And lie at your ease,
You'll die just the same with some Latin disease."

NEW FLOUR MACHINE

Said to Have Been Sold for Enormous Price by Owensboro Men.

Owensboro, Ky., August 23.—Messrs. L. J. Freeman Little and Nat Alsop are home, after spending two months in the interest of a flour refining machine which Mr. Alsop has patented. It is said that they have disposed of the United States rights on the patent for $15,000 and the Canadian rights for $20,000.

The machine weighs 1,800 pounds, and was constructed in the laboratory of Mr. Alsop on his farm. Flour is treated by an electrical process which changes it from a second and third-grade to a first-grade. The machine is pronounced by millers to be one of the greatest inventions ever made for the treatment of flour.

A Department of Mining.

It is understood that President Roosevelt favors the creation of a department of mining, with its head in the cabinet. The secretary of the treasury and the director of the mint, so report says, will speak in advocacy of that project at the coming American mining congress, which will open at Deadwood, S. D., on September 7. Of course, the meeting of that body will arouse a good deal of interest throughout the country. All the recent annual gatherings of the mining interests have been reported fully in the newspapers.

The fact that a cabinet department has recently been created is no argument against erecting one for the mining interest. Only four men—the heads of the state, the treasury and the war departments and the attorney general—sat at the council table of President Washington. The cabinet has been enlarged since then through the creation of a navy department in John Adams' days, through the elevation of the postmaster general to full executive rank in Jackson's time and through the establishment of a department of the interior in Taylor's days, a department of agriculture in Cleveland's and a department of commerce and labor in Roosevelt's.

Thus the cabinet posts have been a little more than doubled since Washington's time, the four posts of that day growing into the nine at present. Of course, the expansion of the country in population has been many times as great as that, while the growth in its activities and wealth has been far greater than its increase in population. The output of the American mining industry in all its features amounts to very much more than $1,000,000,000 a year, and it is growing with great rapidity. While the dignity of that great activity will not be heightened by the creation of a department of mining, with its head in the cabinet, there is no doubt that such a department, with a capable man in charge, would be able to contribute something to its extent and country's industrial economy—Globe-Democrat.

A young Oklahoma man went to church with his best girl. Both were quite handsome and modest. When the collection was being taken up the young man explored his pockets and whispered to the young lady: "I haven't got a cent; I changed my pants." In the meantime the young lady had been searching in her pockets and, finding nothing, blushed a rosy red as she stammered: "I'm in the same predicament."

PROMINENT

Labor Leader Says "Organized Workmen are Only a Drop in the Bucket Compared With the Un-organized."

MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATIONS GAINING STRENGTH EVERYWHERE.

Fort Wayne, Ind., August 20.—John C. Mitchell, president of the International stationary firemen's union, is home from a protracted trip in the interests of his organization. During the past year, besides visiting every part of the United States, he has been in Canada and Mexico, and made two trips to Europe. Speaking of his work and labor questions in general, he made the following remarkable statement concerning the movement of D. M. Parry, the manufacturer, who is so bitterly fighting labor organizations.

"I found one thing that impressed me, and that is the value of arbitration. A strike should be the last resort.

"Parry's movement is gaining ground faster than they think, and unless we watch out it will overwhelm us. What is Parry doing? He is organizing the unorganized. The organized workmen are only a drop in the bucket compared with the unorganized. And by the time Parry gets through he is likely to have the long end of it. He has the press with him, for one thing, and every one knows what that means, and he has the manufacturers and employers with him, too.

"Gompers talks about going into Indianapolis and organizing Parry's shop. He can't do it, because Parry's workmen don't want to be organized. There is only one way for the unions to act. They must drop jealousies; they must respect each other and all classes, and they have got to make up their minds to arbitrate."

The Girl Who Works.

God bless the girl who works! She is brave and noble. She is not too proud to earn her own living or ashamed to be caught at her daily task. She smiles at you from behind the counter or desk or a printer's case. There is a memory of her sewed on each silent gown. She is like a brave mountaineer already far up the precipice—climbing, struggling, rejoicing. The sight should be an inspiration to us all. It is an honor to know this girl and be worthy of her esteem.

Lift your hat to her, young man, as she passes by. Her hand may be stained by dish washing, sweeping, factory grease or printer's ink, but it is an honest hand and a helping hand. It stays misfortunes from home; it supports an invalid loved one, may be; it is the loving, potent shield that protects many a family from the almshouse. The writer knows several such noble working girls. All honor to the brave toiler! God bless and protect the girl who works.—Ex.

AMBITIOUS KENTUCKIANS.

They Are Evolving Great Plans for the State Exhibit at the World's Fair.

It certainly seems to have been a blessing to the State of Kentucky that the Legislature slipped up on its World's Fair appropriation bill. Never was a state so tremendously aroused over any project as the Kentucky people are over the plans for a state exhibit at the coming Exposition. The Kentucky Exhibit Association was formed when the legislature failed to act, and by carrying on a vigorous campaign succeeded in raising by private subscription a fund of $100,000. A complete organization has been effected by the association for the task of collecting and arranging exhibits. Committees have been formed to carry on the work of every department. The plans are well advanced, the space secured, the building designed, accepted, and the collection of exhibits begun. The members of the association are devoting their services freely, besides contributing money.

The mineral display will occupy 6,000 square feet, and will consist of exhibits of coal, crude oil, stone, asphalt, earthy minerals, clays, ores, etc. The collection will embrace the finest specimens to be found.

In the agricultural exhibit will be shown grasses and grains, hemp, tobacco and forage plants, lezumes and vegetables, and everything else any other state in the same latitude can show will contribute to the success of display. A collective exhibit of tobacco from all over the United States will occupy 10,000 square feet at the Palace of Agriculture at the Fair, and just one-half of this space has been allotted to Kentucky for her exhibit of the weed, in recognition of the fact that the Blue Grass State is the greatest tobacco producing state in the Union.

In the live stock display, Kentucky's exhibit, a feature will be the thoroughbred race horses, in the breeding of which the State has always led.

In forestry, education, horticulture, and in all other departments, Kentucky will have an extensive display. It is safe to say that the placards, "Made in Kentucky," "Mined in Kentucky," "Bred in Kentucky," and "Grown in Kentucky," will greet the eye of the visitor to the Fair at every turn.

The Kentucky building, known as the "New Kentucky Home," will cover an area of 196,108 feet. The structure is artistic in design, and will be adorned with symbolical groups of sculpture. The interior arrangement will provide reading and writing rooms, lounging rooms, a large reception hall, and a banquet hall. The furnishings and decorations and all the material used in the construction will be brought from Kentucky. The building will be an imposing structure, and one that will be much admired, making a worthy home for Kentuckians while visiting the Fair.

PROF. J. E. KEMP

Died in Colorado—Remains Buried by Loving Hands at Odd Fellows' Cemetery, Madisonville.

MASONIC HONORS

ACCORDED THE DEAD.

Prof. J. E. Kemp, who some years ago made his home in Madisonville and for several years did the arduous work of a conscientious and earnest educator, died in Denver, Colo., last Wednesday night, August 19, 1903, at 10 o'clock. His last days were passed at St. Anthony Hospital, where he received medical and surgical attention available was had. The cause of his death was a severe form of kidney trouble which, in his weakened general health, he could not survive. Relief was for a time hoped for through a new and delicate surgical operation, but the chances of recovery were not sufficient to warrant the risk. He passed away peacefully, as one sleeping.

Mr. Kemp was 41 years of age at the time of his death, and more than half of his life had been devoted to teaching, in which high vocation he spent his great energy for the elevation of the race. He was born in Houston county, Ga., near the city of Macon. His early days were spent on the farm. After teaching for some years in his native state he came to Kentucky and located at Madisonville about sixteen years ago. Here he was associated for some time with Prof. E. McCully in normal school work. For a time, too, in connection with his school work, he edited a weekly newspaper, known as The Item. His training as a teacher had been finished at Valparaiso, Ind. In the autumn of 1889 he went to Snow, Ga., where he taught one year. Returning to Kentucky the following summer he married Miss Stella Moore, the eldest daughter of the late Dr. Thos. H. Moore, of Madisonville. They went to Madison, Fla., where Mr. Kemp taught three years as principal of the public school of that place. From there he was called to the city of Macon, Ga., where he remained two years. A more desirable place was offered at Barnville, Ga., in the Gordon Institute and here he taught for three years, and until his health failed in the summer of 1898. His future was bright and assured in the State of his nativity, but his love of his profession and his devotion to the interests of the pupils entrusted to his care had consumed his strength.

He went to Colorado upon advice of friends, and on the beautiful dairy ranch of Mr. I. J. Noe, a former Indianan, about forty miles south of Denver, repaired his wasted health and regained his strength in a few months' time. Temporary business arrangements took him south and he stopped at Trinidad where, in a totally strange place, he made friends and applied for a school. When the awards were made he was surprised to find he had been given the principalship of the largest and most important school in the city. Here he taught for four years. The old love for his work again consumed so rapidly his regained strength. He declined gradually from before the closing of his school, which he persisted in finishing, until the end came.

Mr. Kemp's brother William lives on the old home farm in Houston county, Ga. A sister, Mrs. Dorsey lives also in that country. Another sister survives, Mrs. Joseph Holman, of Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Kemp was with his husband at the hospital at the time of his death, and was surrounded by friends in the last hours. She is now with her two young daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret, at the home of her mother and sister, Mrs. Jennie E. Moore and Miss Celeste A. Moore.

The funeral was at the Odd Fellows Cemetery, Madisonville, Saturday afternoon, the funeral service being held at the railroad station upon arrival of Mrs. Kemp and her brother Paul M. Moore, with the Rev. E. W. Turner, Lodge F. and A. M. of Earlington, took charge of the remains and buried them with Masonic honors. The funeral service the deceased had in his lifetime thought most beautiful and best in other truth. Numerous friends from Madisonville Lodge took active part in the ceremonies also. Mr. Kemp during his life at Madisonville was affiliated with the Christian congregation at that place, and was a member of the Christian Elder W. R. Innitt, pastor of the Earlington Christian Church, deacons being the funeral address, preceding the services by the Masons, in which he paid high tribute to the man who had sacrificed himself for the elevation of his race. Mr. R. W. Overall, of Madisonville Lodge, conducted the Masonic ceremonies most impressively.

LOUISVILLE PUTS UP THE GREATEST HORSE SHOW.

(Louisville Herald.)

The horse journals proclaim the Louisville Horse Show to be the greatest exhibition of fine horses in the world. The horse-men in general regard it the leading exhibition, the size of its prizes and the superiority of its classification giving it precedence over others. The Breeder's Gazette expresses its opinion of the exhibition at Louisville in the following from its special correspondent sent to Kentucky last week saying: "The Louisville Horse Show has entered as a complicating factor, as some leading exhibitors practically lay up for that show, which has taken up the show of saddle horses in the world."

Mr. Chas. E. Braswell writes from Edwylville that he has a medal awarded by the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association in 1870 to Hillman Bros. & Sons for best baron, which is ready to turn over to the Exhibit Association for Kentucky's display in the Mims and McAllary Building at the exposition.

Who Has Learned?

Will the dear, long-suffering public ever learn wisdom and prudence and become provident? The long periods of zero-suffering to which a large portion of the public is subjected annually should teach a lesson, and the people should rise in their might and change the worn, old adage about hay to read:

Get Coal While.... The Sun Shines!

If those who do not live on a coal foundation had filled their coal bins and coal houses liberally in the warm weather, when coal and hauling is cheap and the roads good, and had like the grasshopper, fiddled the summer away without providing against the winter's rigors, they would not have had to dance and burn black fences for warmth during the cold snaps and coal shortages of the past few years, which all remember so well.

St. Bernard Coal

mined in Hopkins county, Ky., every day in the year (except Sundays) can be had at any time, but it will get to you more promptly and in better order and at less cost to you, if bought during the summer. Get wise and barricade against Jack Frost with St. Bernard Coal. Order Now. All Grades. Coke, also, of superior quality for base burning stoves and heating furnaces.

Vice Made Attractive.

The more respectable you make a saloon the more you increase its power to attract and lead astray. The dive and the drunkard are warnings, the "respectable" saloon and the moderate drinker are the attractive examples that lead the inexperienced astray.

Are You Willing?

The man who votes for license ought to be willing that his son should die a drunkard. The open saloon, which his vote helps to establish, he knows will ensure the feet of somebody's boy; why should it not be in the eternal law of fitness, his own child?—Louisa S. Rounds.

Staid old New Hampshire people in many towns which voted "yes" are getting an eye-opener in regard to the practical working of the local option law, and already the prophecy is being made that the Prohibitionists will find their cause much strengthened at the next election. The increase in the amount of drunkenness is marked in all parts of the state where liquor is legally sold under the local option statute.

Judge Leonard H. Pillsbury, of Derry, one of the best known men of Chicago, is well qualified to speak in regard to the matter because of the fact that he is a judge of the police court. He makes a statement which will no doubt be read with much interest by readers of THE BEE. He says:

"Our state has been under fifty years of Prohibition and now we are under a system utterly at variance with our past history. And what will the changed conditions show? The criminal docket of the Derry police court shows that from the time of its first establishment, more than eight years ago, there have been about ninety cases of drunks before the court, while within the last two months, since the new conditions have prevailed, there have been fifteen cases—more than ten times as many in proportion to the same time.

Drunkenness Increasing.

"Again, of the thirty cases on the docket for the two months ending with May, 1908 (the era of rigid law enforcement just preceding the issuance of license) only two were for drunks, while twenty-eight were for other offenses, and of the sixteen cases since that time (also two months) all but one were drunks. The flood gates are now wide open—seven of them—and each one abundantly equipped to ruin the boys of our town who are destined to have the temptation constantly before them for the next eighteen months.

"Nearly all observers agree that there is now ten times the liquor consumed here that was used prior to the passage of the new law. Even the lax enforcement accomplished by the few earnest temperance cranks sufficed to keep the ill-starred beverages hidden in the rear and out of sight of the boys as well as of the officers. I pity the man who is so nearly an imbecile that he looks to see any of the restrictive features of the license law ever enforced in good faith. Not one of them will ever be generally observed nor any one be as easily enforced as could the old Prohibition law.

"The penalties for the seller who has no license are too severe to ever be recognized by grand juries and there seem to be no penalties for the violation of his license by the licensee except the withdrawal of his license, and this will not often be done, for the same influence which was potent in securing the issue of the permit, will be equally potent in preventing its withdrawal, and the man who does not know that these influences are generally political has simply had poor opportunities for observation or has dreamily closed his eyes.

Poverty may pinch an honest man, but it never destroys him.

An Effective Gag.

"The proper study of mankind is man," but no one who reads the following story from the New York Tribune would care to deny that there is something to be said on the side of the elective system. The story was a favorite reminiscence of a former merchant of New York, now dead.

"I was once on a gunning trip with some of my friends he used to say, and in a field close to the house where we slept a donkey was pastured. The animal kept us awake all night. My friends, however, said that they would not put a stop to his noise.

"I happened to know a great deal about donkeys. They abound in my native province of Fosen. So I said to my friends, 'I can stop the animal's noise, so that to-night he won't bray once.'

"They did not believe me, but that evening I treated the donkey for his complaint. He was silent all night. The next morning my friends said they wanted to see the donkey, then they would be convinced. They expected to find him dead. They found him alive. A stone was tied to his tail. That was all.

"They could not understand how he had been kept from braying, and they asked me to explain.

"It is perfectly simple," said I, "to any one who has studied the donkey. An animal never brays without raising his tail to the level of his body. So long as it hangs down he will not make a sound. My heavy stone, therefore, served the purpose of a gag."

Takes With Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport, died suddenly all Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he died before a doctor could get to him. He was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he thought would help him out and he took several doses administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicine.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

This remedy never fails. Keep it in your home. It may save life.

Head-End on the Southern.

Ashtland, Ky., Aug. 24.—Train No. 95, double-header, had orders to meet Train No. 96 at Ashland, a double-header, at Glenn. It met No. 72, and from some unknown cause started west before No. 90 arrived and collided with it three-quarters of a mile west of the meeting switch. Four freight engines and two cars of freight were badly damaged, and Fireman R. B. Lewis was caught in his engine and his foot was mashed off. No others were injured.

The Parson's Limit.

He'd been a preaching and exhorting For a score of years or so In a portion of the vineyard. Where the harvesting was slow, Where the temporal inducement For his ceaseless diligence Was a promise of four hundred For his yearly recompense.

Unrelenting was the ardor He devoted to the cause, And, though slowly came the dollars Still he labored without pause, Till one day they came and told him, As he kicked against the pricks, That they'd raised their offered stipend From four hundred up to six.

Then the good man sank exhausted As he hoisly made reply, "Don't I pray you men and brethren, Thus my patience overtly, For to glean the four you've promised Hath so warped my vital store, That 'twould kill me if you taxed me To collect two hundred more."

Boy Run Over.

A boy apparently 10 years old was run over and considerably injured Wednesday evening by Deylder's delivery wagon driven by Leo Herb. Herb and some other boy in the wagon with him said they were looking at some girls and did not see the boy until it was too late to stop the horse. The boy that was run whose name is Smith says he did not see or hear the horse until it was very near him and it was coming so rapidly he had no time to get out of the way.

Mrs. Caroline Daniel Dead.

At the advanced age of 70 years, 3 months and 14 days, Mrs. Caroline Daniel died at her home eight miles below here, at 7:20 p. m., Monday August 17, 1908. She was the relict of the late Callaway Daniel, and one of our oldest and most respected citizens. She was taken with the grip last January and at intervals would become very sick, getting weaker after each attack. She would allow the attention of a physician during her illness. She leaves four children, viz: Mrs. W. T. Mahar, Mrs. Elsie Robinson, of Earlinton, Ky.; W. R. Daniel, of Christian, Mo.; and J. P. Daniel, of this county. She was a true Christian lady and loved by all who knew her through her long life. Services were conducted at the residence by Rev. H. Patterson, the local Baptist minister of Marston, Tuesday afternoon and the remains were interred in the New Hope cemetery.—New Madrid Missourian.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

IN THE COACH BEHIND.

As the smoker I entered No familiar face ventured To cast a smile toward me; So into darkness staring— Into nothingness glaring— I lost myself in reverie— Thinking of little Zoe, Whom I left you on that train And was returning to call mine, Little dreaming that she At that moment could be In the coach behind.

The wind that whistled in the air Might have told me she was there, The coach behind; And the porter on that train Might have hinted the same, But how unkind! I was fated to ride alone On that train returning home, And I could not but wonder Could I have only known To my little Zoe in the coach behind.

The new sand house at East St. Louis was pretty badly burnt on the night of the 17th inst. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it seems to have been the result of spontaneous combustion. The damage was something over a hundred dollars.

G. D. Blondin, after several years firing switch engine in Henderson yard, has, upon request, been transferred to the Transportation Department. Geo. Holloway, a road fireman on the St. Louis Division, who lives at Henderson, has been given Blondin's place as switch fireman.

While Paul Green, a young lad of Decatur, Ala., was riding on some cars loaded with lumber in East St. Louis yard on the 17th, the lumber shifted, catching his leg and bruising it to such an extent that he had to be taken to the hospital. A boy never learns until it is too late the mistake he makes in boarding cars while in motion.

It is said that since the control of the L. & N. has passed into the hands of the Atlantic Coast Line there are now only two American railroads controlled by foreign capital. These are the Chicago Great Western and the New York, Ontario and Western. It is a wonder our railroad magnates would allow even this.

Mr. Walsh had visitors last week in the persons of Charles Forbes, traveling engineer, Chas. Schwab, general foreman, and Wm. Toelle, general foreman of car repairers, all of the Southern Railroad at Princeton, Ind. Their object was to see what their neighbors are doing, and at the same time gather a few pointers. They were full of compliments for the Howell shops.

The management has made arrangement to begin work rebuilding some of the spans to its bridge over the Cumberland river at Clarksville, Tenn., so as to accommodate the heavier engines that are to be placed on the Memphis line. This work will interfere with the navigation on the Cumberland river, and the United States government has granted permission to stop navigation for the period of six weeks for this purpose. However, the stage of water being very low at this time, the running of boats will not be materially interfered with by this work.

The coal train was put on between E. St. Louis and Mascoutah Monday morning. Mr. Walsh intends to put on the best 600-class engine available on this train, which will be the 607 now in shops undergoing general repairs. Chas. Felsted, a boilermaker at Howell, is off on a leave of absence. He is visiting at Carmi with his family.

While Sebastian Reitz was engaged in digging a large sewer, extending from one side of the foundation of the new round house at Howell, last Monday a week ago, the earth suddenly caved in upon him. Willing hands hurriedly threw back the debris that pinned him down, but their heroic efforts [at rescue] did not save his life. He was badly crushed about the head and face and was internally injured. He died at the Deaconess hospital without regaining consciousness.

O. E. Palmer, machinist helper at Howell is spending a week in E. St. Louis.

Owing to the fact that most of the cars in coal service do not reach Earlinton, nor Nashville, and consequently do not receive the attention due them, the Management has decided to put an increased force of inspectors on at Guthrie, which is the most likely place to catch all the cars in this service. There will be an inspector and helper during the day, and also an inspector and helper at night.

Mrs. Stacer Carter of Howell went to Mt. Vernon, Ill., Sunday to attend the wedding of her sister-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Attwood of Howell are spending a few days this week at Dawson Springs. Mr. Attwood is chief clerk in the master mechanic's office.

C. L. Whittenburg, who has for number of years served the L. & N. as millwright at Howell, has resigned on account of ill health. He will go to Los Angeles, Cal., in the hope of finding relief.

A small wreck occurred in Guthrie yard Monday, necessitating sending the wrecker to that place.

John Herb, who has been firing out of Princeton, Ind., will go to braking on the Henderson Division in a few days.

John Hanley, fireman of Nashville terminal, was in Earlinton last Wednesday and Thursday visiting W. A. Goff and attending court at Madisonville with Engineer Boxley. Hanley was an old Henderson Division fireman a while back.

It is rumored that three new railroad lines are to be built into Paducah in the "next year or two." Paducah is a pushing, busy city, but rumors are easy.

The scarcity of white oak timber has occasioned considerable alarm to railroads, and active efforts are being made to provide a durable substitute for cross-ties. At Grenada, Miss., the Illinois Central railroad has in course of construction an immense plant for an experimental station to treat other timbers with chemicals in order to increase their durability and supply a new tie to take the place of the almost extinct growth of white oak.

An officer in the forestry bureau of the department of agriculture at Washington has been assigned to the South to conduct the experiments that will be made on various timbers. The railroads in the United States annually lay 110,000,000 new white oak cross ties, and the supply is failing to meet the demand. Steel ties, paper ties and other substitutes have been manufactured, and tried with very unsatisfactory results. The railroads have decided that timber makes the only satisfactory cross-tie.

The Illinois Central and the Frisco railroads have decided to make thorough tests, and if the experiments projected prove satisfactory a new and important phase will be added to the timber industry of the South. Both railroads have been in conference with the bureau of forestry for several months. They have secured a corps of experts to go South and assist in the tests and experiments. Branch experimental stations have been established at Sturgis, Miss.; Kosciusko, Miss.; Black Rock, Ark.; Portia, Ark.; Clinton, Ky., and Obion, Tenn., where material is being received. Pine, red oak, beech and red gum are the timbers that will mostly be experimented upon. There is a vast quantity of this timber in the South, for which there is little demand and small price.—Globe-Democrat.

At Louisville, George Young, a colored boy, employed by the Manmott livery stable, was fined $10 on charge of cruelty to animals. He was arrested while vigorously beating the horse of Dr. Chas. D. Lucas.

At Paducah The Board of Aldermen refused to concur in the action of the Council in selecting Evansville brick for the street paving and chose Bannan brick of Louisville, which it is believed the Council will also now accept.

At Springfield Edward Canter, of that place, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. No cause is known for the act except that he had been drinking all day.

From Richmond A. C. Wells, City Clerk, went to Chicago for treatment for the bite of a mad dog. He was bitten some days ago and a madstone failed to adhere.

At Owensboro George W. McMahon lies in a dying condition at the home of Jack Oregon as the result of being held up by two unknown men and robbed of $178 and a gold watch. The police have a clew to the highway-men.

Near Cattlesburg, there is a great scourge of typhoid fever throughout the Big Sandy valley, especially severe in Johnson, Floyd and Pike counties. Numerous deaths have been reported, both of citizens and railroad men and a large number are suffering from the disease, which is of a malignant type. Its spread has not yet been checked.

At Frankfort articles incorporated in the Hickman County Telephone Company, of Clinton, capital $5,000, Thomas Emerson, B. A. Boone, J. R. Scarbrough, incorporators, were filed.

THURSDAY, AUG. 27, 1903.

HERE is another proof that the American jury system is a great bulwark of Liberty:

Six small pieces of paper which were picked up in a Justice court room in Muskegon, Mich., the other day read: "Guilty," "not guilty," "guilty," "guilty," "guilty" and "not guilty."

THE Courier-Journal has added a four-cent Goss Quadruple Straight-line press to its office equipment and is now able to turn out 97,000 ten or twelve-page papers per hour. The work of the new press is up to the high standard required by a paper of the Courier-Journal's standing.

Is a book about to be published by John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers he contends that it has always been the policy of the Mine Workers organization never to resort to strikes except where everything else has failed. Mitchell may gain something from this assertion as a gallery play to those persons not in touch and unacquainted with conditions and usages around mining towns where unionism rules, but to those who know, Mitchell's assertion is a revelation of dense ignorance or plain lying.

Personal and Peculiar.

A beautiful and deserved compliment, just come into publication, was some time since officially paid to a well known Knight Templar of Madisonville, Sir E. L. Hendricks. The author of this proper praise is Sir Knight Joseph H. Ewalt of Paris, Ky., who was inspecting officer assigned to review the Paducah and Hopkinsville commanderies in April last. Sir Hendricks is noted in Masonic circles for his finished work as Prelate, and so pleased the inspecting officer at the Paducah inspection that he wrote in the Grand Commandery records this tribute: "Eminent Sir Hendricks has a voice that is peculiarly fitted for that work. I have seen a number of fine Prelates, but his rendition of that part was the most impressive I have ever listened to."

In the ante-railroad days, when coaches and carriages and saddle horses furnished the means of pleasure travel to those who could afford such luxury in Kentucky, a wealthy but eccentric planter of Christian county escorted a young kinsman on a horseback journey to St. Louis. This would be an enormous task in these days, but then it was not a remarkable undertaking for people with blood in their veins. This good old time planter had the confirmed habit of outspokenness, and withal some strong convictions. In the process of seeing the city's attractions the couple attended the leading theatre, where were gathered a brilliant first night assemblage of the city's elite. In the very first part of the show there appeared a then famous danseuse, dressed in fleshings and scant skirts, pirouetting upon the tips of her great toes after the French fashion and going through the now generally known dance. It was too much for the Kentuckian and he arose wrathfully at his vantage point in the midst of the parquette, grasped his umbrella amidst the stage it threateningly toward the shock and shouted, "Git out, you huzzy!"

SENDING THEM BACK BY MAIL.

Guns and Pistols Stolen During the Evansville Riots Last Month Returning Rapidly.

A special from Evansville to the Courier-Journal says: The police here have notice that they will begin to prosecute all persons who are known to have guns or pistols stolen from hardware stores during the Sunday night riot in July. Weapons are received at headquarters daily by registered mail or express from persons who do not wish to be known as possessing stolen articles. The names of 390 men and boys who have weapons are on the police records. The value of guns still unrecovered amounts to more than $2,000.

Money for the Soldiers.

The Louisville Times says: More money is in sight for the First Kentucky regiment. Capt. C. C. Calhoun has written to Capt. John H. Cowles that he is practically certain of getting through Congress claims which will mean from $5 to $10 for each enlisted man and from $50 to $75 for the officers. The First Kentucky was paid by the Government for part of the time put in during the Spanish-American war, but through some red-tape did not get as much pay as was awarded other regiments.

The members of the First Kentucky may now call on Capt. Cowles and file their claims. They will be forwarded to Washington at the proper time. Capt. Cowles will make no charge for his work. He has always been active in advancing the interests of the First Kentucky, and this is in line with his previous generous action.

Capt. Cowles and Capt. Calhoun think there is a chance to get an allowance for the men during the furlough time from December, 1892 to February, 1899.

Leland Hume.

The Nashville Banner pays the following deserved tribute to the general manager of the Cumberland Telephone Company:

"Mr. Leland Hume, General Manager of the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company, will leave tomorrow morning for Atlanta City and New York for a well earned vacation of about two weeks. Mr. Hume, as is well known, is a man of marvelous energy. He keeps a watch on the affairs of the great company with which he is connected that would be a revelation to a less strenuous man. Every detail of the vast business done by the company is looked after closely by him. He does not sit in his office and direct affairs, but is on the spot anywhere along the 200,000 mile of wire operated by the company when he knows he can be of service there."

WAS NOT CARRINGTON.

Man Arrested at Nortonville by City Marshal Roy Blanks is Wrong Man.

A special from Danville, Ill., says: Deputy Sheriff Charles Ryan arrived in this city with the man arrested at Nortonville, Ky., claimed to be Dode Carrington, the Grape Creek murderer. Before he left Nortonville the suspect said to several persons: "Boys, I know Dode Carrington. I know the man, but I am not Carrington. I will be back in a few days." He was a stranger in Nortonville and to a close extent didn't published photograph and advertisements of reward. When Sheriff Whitlock saw him this morning in his cell he was satisfied that the wrong man had been arrested. Others who were well acquainted with Carrington, as soon as they saw him said he was not the man.

He has given his name as Thomas Owen and Thomas Cook. He claims his home is in Colorado. The men who arrested him were Town Marshal and Sheriff Whitlock. He is still in jail, and will be held a couple of days pending investigation.

The Breckinridge News has the following to say in regard to Charles Wendelken, who is an old Earlington boy and received the rudiments of his education in the schools at this place. His many friends and relatives are delighted to hear of his success:

The twenty-fourth annual announcement of the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons, St. Louis, Mo., states that the honors of the freshman class for the session of 1902-1903 were won by Charles Wendelken, of Cloverport, Ky. To be at the head of the freshman class in a large school like this is considered a high honor and speaks well for Mr. Wendelken's merits as a student, his future course and his aptitude for the profession."

SPECIAL RAILROAD EDITION.

The Bee Will Issue Illustrated Number Devoted to Henderson Division L. & N.

INTERESTING HISTORIC DATA WILL BE PUBLISHED FOR FIRST TIME.

THE Bee's special railroad edition will be one of the best railroad papers ever issued in Kentucky. In addition to the personal write-ups of the railroad men of the Henderson Division and their half-tone cuts, it will contain views of important railroad buildings along the line, such as the new passenger station at Evansville, the roundhouses at Howell and Earlington, the depot at Earlington, and other places and views of passenger and freight trains. A complete history of the Henderson Division from the time it was surveyed up to the present time, the changes it has undergone and a great deal of interesting railroad data will be given in this edition.

A great many of the men on the division have already subscribed for copies of the special railroad edition and others are subscribing every day. We wish to make this a thoroughly creditable special edition of THE BEE and want the co-operation of every railroad man on the Henderson Division. It is gotten up in their interest and benefit, and consequently should receive their liberal patronage.

W. F. Sheridan, our recent train master said before he left for Mexico that a railroad paper of this character was worth $1 to any H. D. railroad man now and in the course of time would be worth $20, on account of the personal write-ups of the men if nothing else.

All of the dispatchers, including the chief, several conductors, engine men, firemen and brakemen have already signed contracts for copies of the edition. Foreman L. H. O'Brien is a subscriber, as is also Mr. Walsh, Chief Supt. Jno. W. Logsdon, of Evansville. We want every employee of the H. D. to get this edition of THE BEE and feel sure it is well worth the price asked.

A Woman's Complexion.

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove sallowness or graininess of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local" treatment, as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New trial size bottles, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists.

NEBO NOTES.

Mrs. John Solomon and little son came to visit her father's family last Saturday and returned home Monday evening, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. B. M. Currie.

Tom Ligon and family spent Sunday with Mr. Osburn, of Richland.

Miss Aileen McNary, who has been visiting here, is now visiting Earlington.

Calvin Veasey and family and Miss Mollie Wallace went to Grapevine Saturday and returned Sunday.

Mrs. Long and daughter, of Evansville, who have been visiting George Wallace's family, accompanied by Miss Ella Wallace, went to Providence last week and stayed a few days.

Cargile Jackson, of Dixon, visited R. P. Morrow's family Saturday and Sunday.

T. D. Ramsey and daughter, Marie, of Madisonville, visited here last week.

Le. Townson was breaking a young horse last week and it ran away and broke the buggy, but he did not get hurt.

Willie Hoffman, of Madisonville, came down Saturday evening and returned Monday morning.

The W. C. T. U. gave an entertainment last Sunday and it was very successful. The church was about full. They got eight new members and everyone ought to have been there.

A crowd went from here to Kirkwood Springs last Friday and stayed until Sunday. Then a crowd of young folks went over Sunday and spent the day. They said that they had plenty of dust and good water.

A crowd also went to Dawson Springs from here Sunday, therefore, there were not very many at home. I think the Sunday school was smaller than it has been for a long time.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known for the internal catarrh. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature's doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer $100.00 Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address P. J. CHENY, Toledo, O.

Potent Pill Pleasures.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, Albany, Ga., says, "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than catnip, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time it affected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill."

Est All You Want.

Persons troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia can eat all they want without any harm by taking Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers. This remedy prepares the stomach for the reception, retention, digestion and assimilation of all the wholesome food that may be eaten, and enables the digestive organs to transform the same into the kind of blood that gives health and strength.

One of Morgan's men was J. M. Leubetter, of Little Rock. He has offered the Association for use at the World's Fair a skillful used by his intrepid leader. He says he also has a flint lock rifle, 140 years old, an Indian pipe and other relics.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians, one long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes, of DuPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It cures Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by St. Bernard Drug Store. Price 50c. B. trial bottles free.

Save the Children.

Ninety-nine out of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps the little stomach sweet and encourages their growth and development.

Mr. Henry Carter, 708 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is well again. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN.

Dynamite Shakes Up Trainmen and Passengers—No Casualties.

Kansas City, Mo., August 22.—An attempt was made shortly after 10 o'clock, presumably by amateur robbers, to wreck Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 10 by the use of dynamite, near the big Eddy crossing just north of Quindaro, Kan. All the glass in the engine, including the big headlight, was completely shattered. The engineer and firemen were almost knocked from the cab by the shock and the passengers were badly shaken up. The train, however, was not stopped, although two large pieces were blown out of one of the rails and one of the ties was carried away.

A GREAT OFFER.

Louisville Times and Weekly Courier—Journal Six Months, and The Bee One Year For Only $2.00.

The Louisville Times and Weekly Courier-Journal are making an unprecedented campaign subscription offer—both papers six months for $1; to separate addresses if desired. As the regular price of The Times for six months is $3 and that of the Weekly Courier-Journal $2, this offer gives $3.00 worth of newspapers for a dollar bill, which ought to put the two papers in every home in Kentucky.

And to show that THE BEE can be just as liberal and enterprising, we have joined in the combination and will send The Bee for a year, along with the other two for six months, for $2; thus giving $4.00 for $2.00. All this in a different address, as desired. Now is the time to subscribe. All subscriptions must be sent to this office.

A Physician Healed.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure. "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. Everything I knew to do in the profession without getting relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I heartily recommend its use to all suffering from such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success."

She started 1 minute 24 seconds ahead of Shamrock, and giving 1 minute 37 seconds' time advantage, forced her to finish 3 minutes 21 seconds ahead of her rival.

This she did, and added 1 minute and 19 seconds to her margin of victory.

The race was far more exciting than that of Saturday, and as speedy, with less wind.

The Reliance crossed finish line at 2:13:30 and Shamrock at 2:20:10.

Shamrock gained the reach for the finish line because she was the rear boat, and as the wind was shore she gained by pointing higher and clearer. The wind shifted by southeast by almost due west.

The race was run in less time than that of Saturday. Saturday Shamrock covered the 30 miles in 3 hours 41 minutes 25 seconds. Tuesday she did the same in 3 hours 17 minutes 45 seconds, showing increased speed with wind of less force.

The next race will be sailed Thursday—straightaway 15 miles and return. It won by Reliance that will end the contest—three out of five.

Reliance covered the 30 miles in 3 hours 14 minutes 45 seconds.

Saturday it took her 3 hours 15 minutes 10 seconds.

The wind had hauled to south-southwest when Reliance laid her course for the finish line, ten miles away. It was a close reach, with sheets eased just enough to put the yards on almost their best point of sailing. Though Shamrock III was nearly a mile away, the difference in the time was so slight as to make every yard count.

The wind held true and steady, and Reliance gained until about a mile from the finish, when the wind slackened off.

Reliance still held her own, but half a mile from the finish the wind slackened to forsake her and the pace became slower and slower, while Shamrock III, with a good wind, came booming on.

She was dangerously near and gaining when Reliance crossed the line. Four minutes and 40 seconds later Shamrock III crossed.

Reliance had won by 1 minute and 19 seconds' time.

Comments on the Race.

New York, Aug. 26.—After the race Sir Thomas Lipton said: "You have all seen the results, and the only thing I can say is that I did better than in the last race, which is hopeful. I have my defeat at a little more than one minute. If I make as much progress in the next as I did in this one, I can say I will be the best in the world of the third race. I was more than pleased with my own boat was handled. It is hard to admit it, but the last boat won. Perhaps with more wind at the finish the result might have been different. But I don't want to throw any cold water on the victor. It is hard to win every race in such a series, and I hope our turn will come next."

Capt. Reed said:

"That's number two. Now we will get ready for the third."

Lord Shaftesbury said:

"We are liked. The Reliance is jolly well the best boat in the world."

C. Oliver Iselin said:

"I don't suppose anybody ever saw two boats better handled than those were. It would seem, however, that the Reliance has proved her superiority in all kinds of weather and under all conditions."

ROIN WROUGHT BY FIRE AND WATER

The Louis P. Aiso Optical Co., of St. Louis Temporarily Put Out of Business.

AN EARLY MORNING BLAZE RUINED THEIR VALUABLE STOCK.

A Water Tower Takes a Header into a Building Opposite, Sending Thousands of Gallons of Water into the Quarters of the T. & H. Shoe Co.

St. Louis, Aug. 22.—The five-story building at 414 Broadway, occupied by the A. S. Aiso Optical Co., was partially destroyed by fire Friday morning. The flames were discovered in the upper part of the building about 2 a. m., and the first alarm was promptly followed by two others. The fire was a difficult one to fight, but was not under control until it had communicated to adjoining buildings, and was confined mainly to the upper stories, though the lower ones were flooded.

Floods of water dripped down through the three floors of A. S. Aiso company's building, splashing over the surgical instruments used in optical apparatus, already blackened and warped by the fire.

The fire broke out under control after an hour's fight, interrupted at times by small explosions of flash-light powders and chemicals in the photographic department.

Louis P. Aiso estimated the total value of his stock at $150,000, and after looking over the ruins from the fourth floor, said that he believed that nearly everything was lost. All the stock on the first and second floors was covered with tarpaulins, but these were ruined. The water was not put in place in time to keep off the water. The entire roof collapsed, falling to the fourth floor. The insurance amounted to about 75 per cent. of the value of the stock.

During the fight with the flames, a water-tower on Broadway toppled over, crashing into the building occupied by T. J. Reid Shoe Co., and shot its heavy stream of water into the fourth floor of the building on the top of the tower smashed through a window.

Before the water-tower stream could be shut off, thousands of gallons of water had poured into the building. This seeped down through three floors, damaging the offices in the building.

Water filled hundreds of pasteboard shoe boxes stacked around the walls of the store and soaked their contents, the loss on which is estimated at about $25,000.

MINING NOTES

The Kingston Wolf Coal Company which is being opened near Morton's Gap will be ready for operation as soon as the spur track to that mine is completed which will be in a short time.

The work of the new opening for Barnsley mine is being rapidly pushed and will soon be completed.

The Home River Coal Company of Leavenworth, Kan., has filed a petition of bankruptcy. This mine was capitalized at $1,000,000. This is said to be the first bankruptcy of the kind to happen in the state.

A number of colored men of Topeka have organized a company to mine coal in the Indian Territory. The company is known as the Topeka and Indian Territory Land, Coal and Development Company, with a capital of $50,000. The mining property is situated at Hiawatha, in the heart of the best mining region of the territory. This is the first company composed of colored men organized for this purpose in the United States.

The Providence Enterprise says:

An important coal deal is reported to have been made in Webster county last week. The Webster County Coal Company purchased 100 acres of land lying between their property on the Lisman road and the Colored Cemetery. We understand this gives the company an opening to their property near the slaughter house and that operations will begin there. The development of the mine will begin at once.

While working in the Hecla mine Saturday Dillard Summers had the misfortune to have his leg badly mashed and bruised, but with no broken bones. He is able to be around again.

The National Coal and Oil Co. of Indianapolis, which has been prospecting in this county, says a Hawesville special, has pulled up its machinery and sent it to their Uniontown property, where they have recently purchased 1,500 acres of fine coal lands, which contain mines already in operation. Some Hawesville people are interested and will remove to that town.

Coroner Luke Rodgers was called to Carbondale Tuesday afternoon to hold an inquest over the body of Robert Moore, a young man who had been accidentally killed by being run over by some coal cars. He had been driving the mule team which brought the cars out of the mines, and as he was by himself when the accident occurred, the supposition is that in attempting to board the cars that his foot slipped and he fell beneath them. Moore was about 20 years of age and was married recently.

The Oak Hill Coal Company is adding some new machinery at their mines that will make a valuable improvement to the plant. Heretofore the coal mined there has been drawn from the mines by means of mule power. The mules are to be supplanted by machinery and it is said the new process will enable them to get out doubly the amount of coal they are now mining there.

These mines are owned and operated by Mr. J. Trathen and his son, John. They are fine business men and are making a success of the coal business.

The 3 East entries at No. 9 mine caught on fire from a shot last Friday night and for awhile threatened to do great deal of damage, but Foreman Geo. Wyatt succeeded by hard work in putting the fire out before it did any serious damage.

THEY WAITED FOR HER.

Story of an English Maiden Who Had Three Husbands and Has Another on Deck.

About twenty-five years ago there came to this county from Evansville, Ind., a young, beautiful and vigorous English maiden, named Egglestine, fighting life's hard battle single-handed and alone. In search of employment she landed at Rochester, Ky., where she secured a position as house girl at Dick Simon's hotel, where by her excellent qualities she soon made many friends and admirers. So one day there came a well-to-do English knight, a well-to-do widower, who had been bereft of life's partner and wanted another to take her place. He won the hand of the English maid, ere the nuptial knot was tied another nice gentleman, Walter Hancock, also craved the fair English hand, but upon pressing his suit was informed by her that he was too late, as she had accepted Mr. Knight, whereupon Mr. Hancock said he was very sorry, but would wait for her.

After fifteen or twenty years of married life Mr. Knight sickened and died and after a lapse of proper time Mr. Hancock, who had patiently waited all these years, again came to claim the hand which fate had years before denied him. He was accepted, but ere the holy rites were solemnized, came out own Jacob W. Fisher, then a handsome widower of Morgantown who likewise sought the hand of the English lady, but was informed by her that he was a little too late, as she had accepted the hand of Mr. Hancock. Uncle Jake, though disappointed, gracefully retired, saying he would wait for her.

Mr. Hancock was not a strong man, and in the course of a few fleeting years was gathered home, when in pursuance of fate's new deal, after a proper lapse of time, Mr. Fisher proceeded to file his claim and was in turn accepted, but ere the whilful of time had chimed the wedding bells came there yet another suitor with many shekels of silver craving the hand of the excellent lady, but was informed by her that he was a little too late, as she had accepted Mr. Fisher. This suitor also retired, saying he would wait for her.

And now what shall we say? On the 30th day of last month Mr. Fisher and Mrs. Hancock were happily married at her beautiful home in the upper part of our county.

The only sad feature about this continued romance is the superstitious fear on the part of some that it may be continued, since the deal does not get near to be closed, as there is still one on deck a-waiting. —Green River Republican.

WAS NOT WHIPPED.

Louis Chapman's Friends Resent the Scandalous Reports.

A special from Livermore, Ky., says:

The community is greatly incensed over the unwarranted report concerning the horse-whipping of Louis P. Chapman by Mrs. Joe Bonhomme Saturday afternoon.

The woman was a member of a traveling vaudeville company. The company consisted of the woman's husband and two negro men. It originated in Owensboro. The tent was pitched near the boarding house of Chapman. He and several other young men noticed the shadows on the tent walls at night. They said the negroes dressed in the same apartment with the woman. This reached the ears of the woman and she and her husband went to the boarding house and confronted Chapman with the charge of making remarks about her. She was thwarted in her attempt to strike him with a whip while he was on the back porch washing his face. Chapman is a highly respected young man and his friends are resenting the insinuating reports concerning him.

FRENCH LICK AND WEST BADEN SPRINGS.

In the highlands of Indiana—a two hour ride from Louisville there flow wonderful healing waters, that you'd spend hundreds of dollars to enjoy if they were in Europe.

A recent visitor from Philadelphia, who formerly went to Carlsbad every year, said: "I do not see why anyone goes to Europe for medicinal waters. The water is as beneficial, and the scenery and surrounding country, the air and the opportunities for recreation are better; the hotels and all accommodations are much finer at French Lick-West Baden Springs"—and this gentleman is a native of Switzerland.

The splendidly wooded hills with the cool, invigorating air of these highlands where one can enjoy rambles in the depths of the forest, or rides and drives among the numerous bridle paths and roadways, afford pleasure for those who desire rest and quiet; while at the splendid casinos one can have all the entertainment and social pleasures possible at the most fashionable resorts.

NEW KENTUCKY HOME

Gets Change of Location to the Most Attractive Location

ON THE WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS.

Through the suggestion of World's Fair officials, including President David R. Francis, the Kentucky building has been given a site that is even more desirable than the one accepted three weeks ago. First, the "New Kentucky Home" at the exposition was to have been located on the Plateau of States, but on a second visit to the grounds Pres. A. Y. Ford, of the Kentucky Exhibit Association, and Mr. W. H. Newman, chairman of the Building Committee, saw a spot more inviting and which was in the main picture of the exposition. Gov. Francis, a former Kentuckian himself, was willing and Director of Works Isaac S. Taylor soon agreed. Since then it has been found that by locating the building across the avenue leading to the Palace of Art and the Cascade Gardens a much more attractive lawn may be secured.

The change has been made, and the "New Kentucky Home" will therefore occupy a site that will give the Exhibit Association every opportunity to show off to advantage on a lawn 200 feet deep, the bluegrass of the State and everything in shrubbery and floriculture with which the State abounds. The new and final location has also the advantage of a number of shade trees, for which Forest Park is noted. On the new site the Kentucky building will face the Mines and Metallurgy building, standing just 100 yards from this immense exhibit place. It will be within 200 yards of the Government building, that is visited by 90 percent of the visitors to every exposition; within 150 yards of the Fisheries building; nearly the outdoor mineral display; overlooking the Government gun exhibit, and within 150 yards of the German building.

This puts Kentucky within the main picture of the exposition, the only other state in the Union, with the exception of Texas, which stands at Kentucky's rear, that is so distinguished. All other states are hundreds of yards away. Kentucky is at the intersection of two of the main thoroughfares of the grounds, one leading to the Grand basin, fronting the Cascade Gardens, corresponding in importance and grandeur to the Court of Honor at the Columbian Exposition in Chicago in 1893, and the other to the Terrace of Purchase States, the restaurants and the million dollar Palace of Art. The "New Kentucky Home" and its grounds will be one of the most inviting spots at the great fair.

Cutting the Lilies.

In order to prevent the spread of the water lilies in the lake Mr. Robert Wood and John Fugate have been cutting them off just under the water, loading them in a boat and piling them on the bank. These lilies spread very rapidly and the time to cut them is before the seed drop from the stalk. Messrs. Wood and Fugate are making good headway and have cut the most of them this side of the dead line.

German Syrup.

We want to impress on our readers that Boecher's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specific, such as pure tar, extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasms of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectation in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular sizes, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

GREEN CORN DANCE.

Seneca Indians Feast and Give Thanks for Good Crops.

Vinita, I. T., Aug. 22.—The Seneca Indians are carrying on their annual green corn dance this week, with a large attendance. The green corn dance is held annually in the woods in the Seneca nation. The Senecas hold this dance and festival as a thanksgiving for the good crops of the past year. They build up a fire in the center of a large ring under a brush harbor and dance around the fire for a week. They serve meals under the shed and have a real feast and a week's enjoyment. In early days at the commencement of the dance they burned a dog alive in the ring to start the dance. The custom of burning the dog has been abandoned.

Some Truthful Words.

If it were not for the town paper you would be forgotten. Your success, your sorrow would be drowned in a horse pond of oblivion. Your next door neighbor would not know that you had made a sale of property and that your wife had purchased a nice turnout. If it were not for the town paper people would not know that you existed, and care less. When you walk up town, feeling that earth could not get along without you, that the stars would cease to shine, just remember that if no one else recognizes your importance the reporter is awed by your majestic tread, your sublime presence. Others may deceive you, tell you that they would like to buy you for what you are worth and sell you for what you think you are worth, but the town paper will stand by you, notice your coming and going, and make you feel as though you amounted to something when you do not. Always remember the town paper.—Winchester Democrat.

United States Horses.

The United States is the greatest horse producing country in the world. At this time, therefore, when other agencies are coming into competition with horses for many purposes, and are being substituted for horses in many others, it is proper for us to consider what it is wise to do in order that there shall not be too serious losses in an industry as great as it is widespread and interesting. A few years ago the horses in the United States were valued at $1,100,000,000. Business depression, together with the competition and substitutions referred to, depreciated this stock more than one-half. But there has been an appreciation within a few years, owing to business revival and ensuing prosperity, so that the value of the horses in the country had risen more than $200,000,000 at the end of the last fiscal year, June, 1902, from what the value was at the low water mark referred to.—From John Gilmer Speed's "The Horse in America" in the September Century.

A Good Shot.

Robert Jordan, of Guthrie, who is here on a visit is one of the best rifle shots in the state of his age. With a Stevens' 22 he can drive a tack at a distance of 20 yards or break the bottom of a bottle by shooting through the neck at an equal distance. With this same gun he kills rabbits running and birds on the wing. He is only six years old and uses a shotgun equally as well as he does a rifle. With practice he bids fair to become a crack shot.

We want the news that happens here in Earlington and we also want our friends to help us obtain it. If you go anywhere, telephone THE BEE; if you have a friend visiting you, telephone THE BEE; if your neighbor is sick, telephone THE BEE; if you know of anyone that has been or is going anywhere, telephone THE BEE; no matter what happens, we want to know about it. It may seem trivial to you, when in reality it is a good news item. Don't forget we have a good telephone and are always ready to answer it.

Good is Superintendent of the poultry department, and Mr. O. Stanley Sale the pigeon department. The services of Mr. Theodore Howes of Indianapolis, Ind., have been secured as judge of the poultry department. He is an expert judge of standard-bred poultry. Brooding pen, First, $3.00; Second, $1.00.
Single birds, First, $2.00 Second, $1.00.

Breeding pens must be made in separate entry. There will be a special building for poultry, pigeons and Belgian hares. All breeders should make an effort to show their birds and hares, as it will be both an honor and an advertisement to win in such competition.

Mr. Sale has arranged for a pigeon show that is attracting national interest.

Remember that a dozen of the very finest amusement attractions have been secured for the State Fair and that they are free to all who enter the gates of the fair grounds.

For all information and for catalogues, entry blanks, etc., address Secretary L. B. Shropshire, room 25, Board of Trade Building, Louisville, Ky.

A NEW METAL

Is Seliun, Which is Lighter and Stronger Than Aluminum.

The announcement comes from Germany that a Frenchman, Edward Mollard, has reported to the State Department the discovery of another metal. This new metal is called seliun, and is both lighter and stronger than aluminum. Its hardness is not quite equal to iron, but is greater than zinc, and its power of resistance ranks between iron and steel. The greatest advantage of the cost of production, which is only about one-twentieth that of aluminum. Seliun does not corrode and is capable of a very high polish. The former quality is an important requisite in ship building, while the latter makes the new metal exceptionally suited for cooking utensils.

Numerous experimenters have tried to obtain a metal as light as aluminum, but one which would possess greater rigidity. At first magnesium, which is a combination of aluminum and magnesium, seemed to fulfill these conditions, but a few trials proved that it possessed a very short grain, which destroyed all elasticity. In other words, the metal was capable of sustaining a strong pressure, but breaks easily.

Such a metal, therefore, as seliun, possessing the good qualities of aluminum, together with strength, rigidity and the quality of receiving a high polish, can scarcely help becoming a strong commercial factor, especially when the low cost of production is considered. It is to be hoped that seliun possesses all the advantages claimed for it.—New York Times.

HAPPENINGS IN KENTUCKY.

Richmond, Ky., Aug. 24.—Thos. T. Duffey, a prominent citizen of Madison county, was thrown from his buggy and instantly killed in a runaway.

Albany, Ky., Aug. 24.—Mrs. Lockie Duval, wife of J. S. Duval, a farmer of Brown's Cross Roads, this county, suffered a broken thigh by a horse jerking her to the ground.

A strong flow of gas has been struck in the well on Garrard farm, in Clay county, being drilled by Hohlitzel & Co. This well was 1,700 feet deep, and the gas was found at a depth of 1,200 feet. There are two other wells drilling in Clay county.

W. F. Whitesides died of typhoid fever at Dunlap, Tenn. He was ill nearly four weeks and less than five weeks ago married Miss Bessie Kell. He had held the position of operator with the Postal Telegraph Company at Dunlap one year. He was twenty-one years old and the youngest son of Judge Geo. W. Whitesides. His body will be buried in Green Lawn cemetery.

Robert Saunders and Mrs. Annie Spraggins, of the extreme end of the county, to Hawesville and were married by Judge Stephens. Mrs. Spraggins was divorced from a former husband in July.

The country the couple came from is the famous Pinehico, which none of the adjoining counties will claim, and is therefore hard to locate. The pair left their homes at 10 o'clock the night before, arriving here at the same hour Sunday morning.

Although the farmers of Christian county and that section generally had a very poor wheat crop from present indications the corn and cotton crop will be finer than it has for years, and will more than make up for the loss on the wheat.

Mrs. Clark Boardley, who lives at Louisville was delivered of a girl baby which weighed at its birth twenty-five pounds. Dr. Samuel Manley, of Eighteenth and Walnut streets, assisted by Dr. Kenner, and they both regarded this as one of the most remarkable cases on record. The average weight of a child at birth is about seven pounds. Mrs. Boardley and baby are both doing well.

Railroad Edition.

On account of several of the Henderson Division people who have lately become interested in the Special Railroad Edition THE BEE is getting out, and desire to be represented in the same, we have extended the extreme limit when photographs may be received until Sept. 15. This will not delay the edition any as it will only take a short while to get the cuts out after the photos are received. All who wish to take part in this Railroad Edition are urged to send in their photos at an early date.

Catholics Will Plant Big Vineyard.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 20.—Notre Dame university, near South Bend, Ind., one of the largest Catholic institutions in the United States, is planning to establish a $1,000,000 vineyard near the university grounds. The vines will be imported from France. It is also said that 300 families will be brought here from that country to cultivate the vines.

The university recently disposed of large holdings in France and, in addition is said to have received a fund of $1,000,000 from the church at Rome.

ADJUTANT GENERAL MURRAY

Says About 1350 Men Will Participate in Maneuvers of Kentucky Soldiers.

A special from Frankfort to the Courier-Journal under date of Aug. 24 says: Adj. Gen. D. R. Murray this afternoon forwarded to Gen. J. C. Bates, commander of the Department of the Lakes, the names of the companies of the Kentucky State Guard designated to participate in the combined maneuvers at West Point September 30 to October 11, inclusive.

The exact number of men to participate in the combined maneuvers has not been definitely estimated, but will not vary largely from 1,350 soldiers. The following is the list of battalions, and companies designated:

MRS. OPPENHEIMER

Allowed Bail But Cannot Leave Ohio.

Judge Caldwell this morning decided to admit to bail Mrs. Annie Albert Oppenheimer, of Russellville, Ky., who is alleged to have killed her child at the German Deaconess Hospital some time ago. The court fixed bail at $10,000, to be paid by her attorney, Col. Shays, said he thought he could obtain.

The court took this step in accordance with the discretion allowed by law, and after the statement of the prosecuting attorney the case would probably not be reached this term. In deciding on the bail Judge Caldwell well stated that Mrs. Oppenheimer would not be allowed to leave the State.

Corn Growing on Trees.

The remarkable statement made by a Davis county farmer that he had corn growing on trees was found upon examination to be true. A bird or squirrel had dropped a grain of corn in the hollow of a dead tree; there was sufficient earth in there for the corn to sprout. The farmer at once put in more trees and planted more corn and soon had corn literally growing on trees.
